

THE CEO INSTITUTE - Mentor

EMMA STEIN

Brief summary

Emma Stein is a chair of one CEO Institute syndicate groups in Sydney. She is a highly active non executive director, and has a wealth of experience as an international CEO across a range of building materials, fuel distribution and energy companies. Emma has extensive understanding of global energy markets. In 2002, she was named one of the Top 50 Women in Energy in the World by 'Commodities Now' Magazine.

Emma grew up in England and relocated to Australia in 2003.

Present Non-Executive Director Roles:

- Non-Executive Director for Arc Energy (April 2005 to present)
- Non-Executive Director for Integral Energy (October 2004 to present)
- Non-Executive Director for Diversified Utilities Energy Trust, DUET (May 2004 to present)
- Non-Executive Director for Growth Centres Commission (July 2005 to present)

Not-for-Profits Roles:

- University of Western Sydney Board of Trustees' Strategy and Resources Committee (July 2004 to present)
- NSW President for NAPCAN (National Organisation for Prevention of Child Abuse and Neglect)

Board Committee Work – Chair of Audit for Arc Energy, Member of Audit and Risk for DUET, Chair of Retail Risk for Integral Energy, Member of Remuneration for Arc Energy and Member of Audit for Growth Centres Commission.

Previous Full-Time Executive Roles (1984 to 2003):

- UK Managing Director for Gaz de France Energy (October 1997 to May 2003)-Turnover approx 300mn GBP, Employees 300,Market Share 12%
- UK Divisional Managing Director for British Fuels (1995 to 1997)
- UK Business Development Director for British Fuels (1992 to 1995)
- Regional GM ,Redland subsidiary, British Fuels (1988 to 1992)
- Corporate Planning Analyst for international building materials group Redland Plc (1984 to 1988)

Previous Non-Executive Roles:

- Non-Executive Director for Central Petroleum
- UK Non-Executive Director for Cofathec Heatsave
- Board Director and Treasurer for a UK not-for-profits organisation

Strengths

A well rounded Non Executive Director with added strengths:

- CEO Capabilities
- A career in International Business spanning building materials, fuel distribution and energy
- Detailed understanding of global energy markets (In 2002, named one of the Top 50 Women in Energy in the World by Commodities Now Magazine)
- Extensive Risk Management Experience.

Professional Development

- AICD Advanced Programme (2006)
- AICD Fellowship Status Awarded (Sept 2004)
- Graduate of AICD Directors Diploma (Aug 2004)
- Accredited by the Australian Institute of Management (March 2003)

Qualifications:

- MBA Manchester Business School, special subjects in Corporate Finance and International Business Strategy (1982 to 1984).
- B.Sc Hons Physics Manchester University (1977 to 1981)

Community service

- Ambassador for the Guides.
- Member of Wallacia Primary School P&C

Contact details

Phone: 02 9904 3744
Mobile: 0407 248 848
Email: mentornsw@ceo.com.au