

THE CEO INSTITUTE - MENTOR

WARREN HART

Brief summary

Warren is an active Sydney company director, executive mentor, advisor to CEO's and boards, and to the public sector. Warren is a chairman of three CEO Institute syndicate groups in Sydney, and is a former CEO Institute member.

Warren's career spans CEO and senior management appointments in business and government and he has solid business experience. Warren is frequently sought after as a public speaker on CEO leadership and government issues. Warren is highly regarded as a leader of his CEO Institute syndicates and has excellent relationships with his syndicate members and with those he mentors.

Outgoing and personable, he enjoys broad networks at senior business and government levels.

Industry experience

- Financial management
- Human resources / people motivation
- Major project management
- Utilities
- Significant public sector experience and advisor on government relations
- Crisis management expert
- Government business enterprises
- Executive development
- Cultural change
- Industrial relations

Profile

Warren has over thirty years experience in leading major organizations. Warren initially gained tertiary qualifications in law and labour relations. He is principal of Warren Hart & Associates, a boutique management consultancy which has been advisor of choice to many leading private and public sector corporations. His clients include the mining, metals, consumer goods, biotech, local government, financial services and federal and state public sectors.

Warren was Managing Director of Australia Water Technologies and Australian Water Technology International Pty Ltd, Chairman of AWT Philippines Pty Ltd and Deputy Managing Director of the Sydney Water Corporation. He was Chairman of Water Eco Science Laboratories Victoria.

His current and former roles have given him extensive experience in working internationally. Warren has managed projects in the Philippines, New Zealand, Malaysia, Thailand, Singapore, and Indonesia.

Warren is a board member of two Australian companies.

Strengths

- Long experience as CEO, company director
- Expertise in medicine, biotech, utilities, mining, government, consumer goods, and finance
- Excellent people management skills and insights
- Extensive current international experience on major projects
- Strong Asia Pacific contacts
- An excellent contributor
- Exposed to a large cross section of Australian business and government through current consulting and mentoring activities
- Strong and wide ranging networks

Qualifications, directorships, memberships

- Principal Warren Hart & Associates
- Honorary Associate School of Government at Sydney University
- Member Australian Institute of Company Directors
- Member Australian Institute of Management

Contact details:

Phone: 02 9904 3744
Email address: mentornsw@ceo.com.au