

John Sweeney

Chairman of:
Syndicate 42,
Syndicate 62,
and
Syndicate 66

Chairman Since:
2007

Current Executive/Board positions:
Director, Greater West Development Fund Limited
Director, JMJ Enterprises Pty Ltd
Director, Partners in Property Pty Ltd

Industry Experience:

- Financial services
- Fleet leasing and equipment finance
- Commercial finance including business loans and cash flow finance
- Human resources/people motivation
- Property finance including development finance
- SME development
- Successful entrepreneur
- Understanding of many industry sectors through investment experience, and lending to SMEs
- Experienced CEO and company director
- Excellent people management skills and insights
- Strong and wide ranging networks and regional knowledge especially in Greater Western Sydney

Membership:
Australian Institute of Company Directors
Australian Institute of Management
National Institute of Accountants
Australian Society of CPAs
Financial Services Institute of Australia
Justice of the Peace

Contact:
Ph (02) 9904 3744
Email: johns@ceo.com.au

Brief Summary:

John Sweeney is an active Sydney company director, entrepreneur, and executive mentor.

John has over thirty years experience in banking and finance. He commenced his career with the Bank of New South Wales (now Westpac). He later moved to Australian Guarantee Corporation, where he held a number of executive positions including National Operations Manager for the Commercial Finance Division. John then moved to ORIX Australia Corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary of ORIX Japan, where he commenced as General Manager Operations. He was promoted to Chief General Manager Commercial Finance, and subsequently to Deputy Managing Director and then Managing Director in 1995, responsible for Australia and New Zealand.

John served as Chairman of Australia Finance Conference Ltd (the industry association for finance companies and building societies) and was Chairman, Austral Mercantile Collection Pty Ltd and a director of ORIX New Zealand Limited. Having been a highly successful CEO over two decades, John retired recently at an early age to manage his extensive personal business interests. John and his family are innovators, and this is reflected in the range of companies they have established.

John is currently a member of the Diocesan Audit Committee of the Catholic Church, Diocese of Parramatta and is Chairman of the Finance Committee, St Nicholas of Myra Catholic Church, Penrith.

Best advice ever received

"If it's not life changing or life threatening, then it's not worth worrying too much about"